

Northern Virginia Buffalo Soldiers Remembrance

Joe Milford Morris Jr.

“Trooper”

Sunrise October 30, 1959

Trooper as we knew him, others sometimes called him Preacher because of his love for God. Trooper had a passion for riding his motorcycle. He was a faithful member of Harley Owner Groups of Fairfax and Manassas, Virginia chapters and the Christian Motorcycle Association. In 2007 “Trooper” became a proud member of the Northern Virginia Buffalo Soldiers. “Trooper” was a family man and a loving husband to his wife Dawn. Trooper enjoyed playing drums and listening to jazz music.

He promoted a positive representation as a rider.

He was responsible member of his community.

He provided a positive role model for the youth in our community.

He continued the tradition of service to the nation as was established by our Military ancestors.

“Rest on my brother”

We can never be separated from those we love ...weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning because God leaves us memories to hold and love that doesn't pass away. You are in our hearts and God eases our sorrow and replaces it with sweet memories.

Buffalo Soldiers!!! Buffalo Soldiers!!! Buffalo Soldiers!!!

“And Its All good

Sunset June 18, 2007

